Crawford County Clerk's Office receives grant from the Kansas Humanities Council

TOPEKA – The Kansas Humanities Council (KHC) recently awarded the Crawford County Clerk's Office of Girard a $3,500 grant for the "Crawford County Maps" collections care project. Susan Thom serves as the project director.

"KHC Heritage grants encourage the preservation of local cultural resources," said Julie Mulvihill, executive director of the Kansas Humanities Council. "This project will ensure that Crawford County's historic maps are preserved for future generations."

The Kansas Humanities Council is a nonprofit organization that supports community-based cultural programs, serves as a financial resource through an active grant-making program, and encourages Kansans to engage in the civic and cultural life of their communities.
